

JOIN OVER 100,000 DESIGNEES WHO HAVE EARNED THE APICS CPIM

The APICS Certified in Production and Inventory Management (CPIM) program is recognized globally as the standard of professional competence in production and inventory control. For over 40 years, employers have recognized the value APICS CPIM designees bring to their organizations.

The APICS CPIM Program

Since it launched in 1973, the APICS CPIM program has enabled over 100,000 professionals to demonstrate the knowledge and skills to strategically streamline operations.

The benefits of APICS CPIM

APICS CPIM designees enjoy tremendous benefits, including:

- Higher salary. In fact, designees earn on average 14 percent more than their counterparts without the designation.
- Improved hiring potential. 65 percent report that their APICS CPIM designation made a positive impact in hiring decisions.
- Join a network of over 100,000 APICS CPIM designees worldwide.
- Experience enhanced credibility and recognition.

When you earn the APICS CPIM designation, you join a growing global network of production and inventory control professionals who demonstrate mastery of production and inventory control topics.

Who should earn the APICS CPIM designation?

The APICS CPIM is essential for professionals working in:

- Production and inventory management
- Operations
- Supply chain management
- Procurement
- Materials management
- Purchasing

An APICS CPIM will help you maximize the ROI on your organization's systems and technologies and increase customer satisfaction by delivering Lean/JIT products and services.
